

LOCAL BREVITIES.

It is now the Lenten season.

Buy a Brownie kodak, $1, at Babbitt Bros.

Miss Florence Dukes was a Williams visitor Thursday.

For Sale—Nearly new two-horse buggy. Apply at this office. 10

Eastman kodaks and photo supplies at Eastern prices at Babbitts'.

J. C. Grim returned last night from a ten days stay in Los Angeles, Cal.

For Rent—Three rooms in the northwest part of town. D. Wallace. 11

The wife and son of R. W. Boyle, the jeweler, arrived from Kansas City, Mo., today.

For mandolins, guitars, musical supplies and music of all kinds, see Scott T. Linn.

Quite a number of tourists are seen on our streets nowadays which we are always glad to welcome.

A. L. Spellmire, spent several days here, this week, renewing his acquaintance with his former friends.

The Phoenix post-office is the greatest fly-trap in Arizona. They catch and kill about two million a day.

The board of supervisors are having their office papered. G. N. Baly the paper hanger and painter is doing the work.

Miss Bertha Beecher, who is teaching in the Williams schools, spent Saturday and Sunday here the guest of Miss Yetta Manning.

Dan. McSweeney has moved his sho shop from Babbitt Brothers to two doors north of the second-hand store on San Francisco street.

David Babbitt and Paul Verkamp left Tuesday for Cincinnati, Ohio. Mr. Babbitt expects to be absent for the next six weeks, and during his stay in the east will visit the principal cities. Mr. Verkamp who has been visiting friends on the coast returns to his home.

M. Giddings left Thursday night for Milwaukee, Wis., where he will enter the Soldier's home. Mr. Giddings who is 77 years of age, served in the Civil War, and has outlived all his immediate relatives, and will spend his remaining days in one of the homes which are always kept open by Uncle Sam for his old soldiers.

Matt. Black, returned Wednesday from the windmill in the Verde valley, where he has been for several weeks "rounding up" cattle. He reports the range as being in excellent condition, and the new grass as coming on fine. He returned by the way of Oak creek and says the families of J. J. Thompson and D. C. James have the small-pox, but are recovering from the affliction.

E. M. Doe, and R. H. Cameron, left here for Prescott, Thursday, on legal business in connection with a suit against the Santa Fe railroad company relative to the Bright Angel trail. The railroad company have refused to allow Mr. Cameron on the right of way claimed by the company at the Grand Canyon. An injunction will be applied for to keep the railroad from interfering with the operation of the trail by Mr. Cameron. The hearing of the case before Judge Sloan is in progress in Prescott today.

Fresh oysters and blue ribbon celery at Black & Jones.

A. T. Cobb and family are occupying the Gavin residence.

Misses Bessie Daggs left today on a visit to her parents in Jerome.

Christopher's candies, the best made, in fancy boxes, at Black & Jones.

Bread, pies, cakes and for everything turned out in a first-class bakery go to Black & Jones'.

Mr. Collins, a brother of Mrs. M. I. Powers, arrived from Iowa this week and will remain some time.

F. C. Reid left Thursday for Prescott and Phoenix, on legal business. He expects to be gone a week.

A. J. Daggs has returned to Phoenix after an absence of over two years spent in Baltimore, Maryland.

To Exchange—Nearly new Improved Singer machine for driving horse or town lots. Inquire at this office.

Fire Insurance—The Arizona Central Bank represents a number of the largest American and English companies.

J. Backman, the paper hanger and decorator is prepared to do work in his line in the latest effects and his work is first-class and promptly done.

P. H. McGonigle left Friday for the Grand Canyon, where he will look after the property of the Flagstaff Electric Power company. He will make the trip across the country and takes with him a number of pack animals.

R. A. Ferguson and Ashton Nebeker came in from Tuba City yesterday, and will remain several days. All the Mormons have left that section but the Nebeker family. They have settled on the little Colorado river at the various stakes and at Farmington, New Mexico.

The delinquent tax list of Coconino county is published in the Gem this week and is a short list of delinquents. The list comprises one hundred and sixty-one names, and the total amount delinquent about $10,000. The sale of the delinquent property is advertised to take place on Monday, March 23d, between the hours of 10 o'clock a. m., and 3 o'clock p. m.

W. H. B. Kent, who, since July last, has been chief ranger of the San Francisco Mountains, Black Mesa and Grand Canyon reserves, has been called to Washington, D. C., to take his former position in the Bureau of Agriculture, and left Thursday for Washington. Mr. Kent is a bright energetic young man and thoroughly interested in forestry, and the kind of young man to advance in his profession.

Tuesday night N. A. Cameron and Al Coverly were returning from Cameron logging camp the team in the darkness ran into a pile of rocks, and Mr. Cameron, who was driving was pulled from the buggy by the frightened horses breaking his right arm at the wrist and breaking the left thumb. Mr. Coverly escaped serious injury. Mr. Cameron left Thursday for Los Angeles, Cal., where he will remain until he recovers from his injuries.

The scratch of a pin may cause the loss of a limb or even death when blood poisoning results from the injury. All danger of this may be avoided, however, by promptly applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It is an antiseptic and quick healing liniment for cuts, bruises and burns. For sale by Pioneer Drug Store.

Leave your orders for bread, pies and cake with Black & Jones.

The residence of Mrs. S. S. Acker was released from quarantine today.

T. F. Moran, district attorney of Apache county, spent Monday here on business.

L. L. Ferrall, of the Bright Angel hotel, Grand Canyon, was a visitor here Tuesday.

Born—In Flagstaff, Arizona, on Feb. 25, 1903, to the wife of J. Herman, a daughter.

Send to the Curio, Williams, Ariz., for your Butterick patterns and sewing machine needles.

Miss Bertha Bach, a student of the Normal, left today on a visit to her home on Beaver Creek.

Thos. Sayer came from Ash Fork yesterday. His camp of sheep are in the vicinity of that place but will be driven south.

J. Backman, the painter, has artistically decorated the front of the hardware department of Babbitt Brothers, in various shades of green.

The interior of the Gem office has been repapered and painted, and the exterior has been treated with a fresh coat of paint, a much needed improvement.

Our Douglas shoe is not a $6 or $7 one, but it is the best $3.50 made. There are none better sold and they come in all the latest styles. J. Herman, Flagstaff.

M. J. Riordan of the Arizona Lumber and Timber company, left Tuesday on a thirty days trip through Mexico. The land of the Manana has great attraction for Mr. Riordan this being his third trip there.

A. W. McCash, who has been employed in the office of Babbitt Brothers for several months, left last week for Prescott where he has accepted a responsible position with Prescott National Bank. Before coming to Arizona Mr. McCash held a position with a prominent bank in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Captain George E. Bartlett, the marvelous marksman gave an exhibition of fancy shooting at the base ball grounds on Tuesday afternoon. The exhibition was to demonstrate the good points of a semi-smokeless powder and loaded shells. He is adept with the rifle or shotgun and does all manner of trick shooting.

Married—In Flagstaff, on Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Heckerthorn, the parents of the bride, Miss Lou Heckerthorn and Mr. Edgar D. Lockwood. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. H. Henry, in the presence of a number of friends of the contracting parties. After the ceremony the guest partook of a fine wedding dinner. The happy couple will make Flagstaff their home.

As over the West they wear
Levi Strauss & Co's
Copper-riveted
Overalls,

and you will see how all the girls look who buy their toilet preparations including Soaps, Powders, Cold Creams, Tooth Preparations, etc., etc., of

W. H. TIMERHOFF,

The Leading Druggist,

FLAGSTAFF. ARIZONA.

R. W. Boyle,

Watchmaker,
Jeweler and Graduate Optician.

I do all kinds of

Watch, Clock and

Jewelry Repairing

and make a specialty of Fitting and Adjusting
Eye-Glasses Correctly.
EYES TESTED FREE.

ALL WORK GUARANTEED.

In Loy Building, Opposite
City Hall.

Will be open for business about
February 25, 1903.

TURNELL'S
Home Bakery

Muscle and Confectionery Store.
PIES, CAKES, HOT TAMALES
Fruits, Nuts, Candies
Cigars and Tobacco

Special attention given to supplying parties.

Next Door to Reading Room.
FLAGSTAFF. ARIZONA.

If your dealer does not keep the
FRANKLIN MILLS ENTIRE WHEAT
FLOUR,
send us his name with your order and we will see that you are supplied.
Always ask for "Franklin Mills." All leading grocers sell it.
Franklin Mills Co., Lockport, N. Y.